Mahone led off a few weeks ago with what is called his repu diation letter, advocating a readjust-ment of the State debt on a newly restimated capability of the people, and repudiating the Funding Bill. The majority of the respectable people of the State seem thus far to stand firm for the nonor of the Old Dominion and for the payment of the debt, but it is thought an payment of the debt, but it is thought an out and out repudiation platform would carry the masses of the people. The break-up of the Radical party, caused by President Hayes' Southern policy, destroys the main element of conesion of the Conservatives, and it is therefore likely that the Convention will spilt on this debt question. The Daniel delegates are trying to rally all the others, except the Mauone men, on a platform for payment of the dept, so it is likely that if Mahone fieds them too strong for him he will withdraw from the Convention and run as an Independent.

The Daniel party are this morning jubilant because the State Committee allows them the Temporary Chairman allows them the Temporary Chairman in the person of Colonel Lane, of Norfolk. This, however, will afford but little advantage; as the Daniel delegation will appoint the Committee on Permanent Organization, and the Hon, Marshall Hanger, a Mahone man, will be Permanent Chairman. The majority rule holds in chosing the nominees. The onvention only assembles at 12 o'clock will take recess till 2 o'clock, so that is soub ful if the nomination can be received until a late hour in the night.

Mr. G. H. A. Steuwer, the well-known scuiptor of No. 338 Central avenue. Mr. G. H. A. Steuwer, the well-known scuiptor of No. 338 Central avenue, above Ninth street, was engayed to put up the monument at a cost of $2,000. Yesterday he gave the last touch to the proud structure. The monument measures twenty feet in height, and has cost months of labor. There are two bases, made of Dayton stone, and upon this rests the proper base, cut out of the purest Italian marble, measuring five leet square. On this base comes the die bearing a plate with the name, age and demise of Mr. Ochimann.

On this rests the socket of the column

On this rests the socket of the column which is a broken one. Over the ten the center of the column is a scroll-plate with a Masonic emblem. The waste monument is of the finest Italian marble, and is one of the most magnificent ones ever made in this city. The moon-ment was taken this morning to the Walnut Hals Cemetery, where the remains of Mr. Oenimann fie. Mr. Steuwer is now engaged in con-structing another monument, a costly one, to the memories of H. and W. Sebmidt.

The Other Side.

To the Editor of the Star: Voige & Winters' statement that we should make five-cent cigars for $8 is talse. The cigar is called a tip cigar, and is sold for $35 and the five-cent organ is sold at $28 per thousand. Other firms pay $9 and $10 per thousand for the same eigars that Voige & Winters want to pay $8 per thousand for. The tip eigar is the same as the clear seed eigar.
